

Prayer Board

Please remember in your prayers all the sick of our parish and for those close to them who are also affected. Please pray also for those who are anxious or distressed.

Good Afternoon, All,

We hope you are all staying safe and well. We have been in North Wales for a few days and we were lucky to miss what bit of rain there was but the easterly, or north easterly, winds were bitter coming straight off the sea so we tended to do our walking in more sheltered areas. It was nice to be waited on and we enjoyed some great company, great food and entertainment. We had a suite, overlooking the sea, so felt very lucky.

It's nice to be back, though, despite the washing etc. with plenty to catch up on.

If you need info. re. Mass and service times etc. for our parishes please click on www.claytonrishtonharwood.org.uk and then click on NEWSLETTER. Let me know if you need any information for other parishes and I will find out for you.

I have copied this item from the newsletter for those who can't read it on line. If any of you would be willing to read at one of The Stations please contact Peter on the number given. Thank you.

“The Stations of The Cross by the laity will take place at St. Mary's Church on Wednesday 22 March at 7.00pm, involving both men and ladies. If you are available on that date and would be willing to say a prayer at one of the Stations, please contact Peter Holden on 01254 237808”

There will be Mass in our school on Friday at 09.45, with Year 5. We are all invited to attend.

Last week the food bank helped 15 families/individuals with a total of 49 bags plus extras. Thank you to all who donated food. Collection boxes are at the back of our three churches and donations can also be left in the foyer of the school front entrance. Thank you, all.

I will send a funny separately but here is a joke for those who receive a paper copy of the news.

“A motorist was arrested after he crashed his car.

He said he swerved to avoid hitting an octopus that was in the road at the time.

The Police said they became suspicious when they couldn't find any squid marks...”

Have a good week.

Love and God bless,

Anne.
